

Fred Aspinwall Watercolors. In the listing below, titles were added where none were given by Fred. Added titles of landscape were likely painted in Jackson Park, Chicago. Fred immigrated to the USA in 1892 and settled in Chicago to work as an artist during construction of the World's Columbian Exposition.

Notes:

1. Searching Google maps I found St. Mary's Church in Bloxham, Banbury, UK, with a steeple similar to the steeple in the background at right.
2. On the reverse of Kensington Gardens.
3. Rydal Water Cumberland England is written on the reverse but not in Fred's hand. Cumberland may not be correct. Rydal Water is in the Lake District National Park, UK.
4. On the reverse of Bloxum Church, perhaps it is Fred as a young adult.
5. Omitted top and right to fit 8.5 by 11 scan size.
6. Could this be the North Shore Channel with power poles and timber piling?
7. Located in Jackson Park, Chicago, this building was part of the 1893 World's Colombian Exposition.

This document was created in December 2023 by Dick Lanyon. Each watercolor photograph is accompanied by Fred's handwritten note where such exists. The watercolors are framed and belong to Emily Lanyon as of 2024. Emily is Dick and Marsha's daughter.
